

Key Strengths

- Punctual Overall inspections
- Focused Troubleshooting
- Preventive Maintenance Plans
- Improvement Studies

ESP Services

What we offer

GMAB Global Services provides a complete range of aftermarket solutions for electrostatic precipitators and air pollution control systems worldwide. From revamping aging installations to supplying spare parts and offering onsite inspections, we ensure optimal performance of your systems. Our customer-focused approach guarantees fast response, expert supervision, and professional maintenance—anywhere in the world.

Our core services include

- Full range of aftermarket products for existing installations
- Spare parts & consumables supply
- Site inspections and technical expertise
- Revamping and upgrades of ESPs
- Commissioning & operator training
- Troubleshooting, Maintenance and supervision services
- Optimization of electrical system
- Process evaluation and performance optimization
- CFD modelling and efficiency improvement
- Fast global support in urgent situations

Electrostatic Precipitators

- Complete range of aftermarket services for existing installations
- Replacement of a component by an identical part or with a new component
- Supply of fabricated parts
- Supply of “off the shelf” parts

We can provide any kind of products regardless of the original manufacturer.

